

Anne Arundel Medical Center Internal Medicine Residency

Regularly Scheduled Conferences

Morning Report	Overnight admissions case discussions and/or interesting case presentation discussions by chief resident. Conducted in-person or via Zoom Tuesday-Friday 7-8am. GMS residents are required to attend.
Weekly Cardiology Conference	Cardiology M&M discussions and case discussions. Conducted via Zoom weekly on Thursdays from 7-8am. Optional to attend if able.

NOON CONFERENCE		PROTECTED TIME FROM 12-1PM
MONDAY		TUESDAY
1 st Rheumatology		1 st No Conference (wellbeing time)
2 nd Nephrology/Board Review		2 nd Schwartz Rounds (Bioethics)
3 rd Journal Club		3 rd No Conference (wellbeing time)
4 th Resident M & M		4 th No Conference (wellbeing time)
WEDNESDAY		THURSDAY
1 st Neurology	-	1 st Clinical Reasoning Docendo Discimus Rounds
2 nd Cardiology		2 nd Dept of Medicine Grand Rounds
3 rd Concilium/Clinical Reasoning Rounds		3 rd Dept of Medicine M & M
4 th Endocrinology		4 th Pulmonary and Critical Care
FRIDAY		MISCELLANEOUS
1 st Gastroenterology (Odd) / Geriatrics (Even)		ID/Epidemiology
2 nd Program Operational Meeting		Emergency Medicine
3 rd Hematology/Oncology		Pharmacy
4 th Radiology		Dermatology

Asynchronous Learning: Residents are given access to NEJM Knowledge + where they are assigned regular quizzes.

Ambulatory Education 1/2 Day

- Residents are provided the Yale Office-based Medicine Curriculum and assigned topics to present to their teams during their Continuity Clinic weeks
- Weekly Workshops Include (but are not limited to):
 - Preop Assessments
 - Vaccines
 - Telemedicine Training
 - In-Basket Management
 - EKG Reading Sessions
 - Inpatient and Outpatient Epic Training
 - Billing/Coding Workshops
 - POCUS Curriculum
 - Difficult Conversations Simulations